

A large circle is centered within a square frame. The circle's diameter is approximately 80% of the square's side length, leaving a consistent margin between the circle and the square's edges.

Urban

A large circle is centered within a square frame. The circle's diameter is approximately 80% of the square's side length, leaving a consistent margin between the circle and the square's edges.

Rural